Staley receives DPPD scholarship

Kyle Staley of Gothenburg has received Dawson Public Power District's utility line scholarship. He plans to attend Northeast Community College in the fall and pursue a career as a utility lineman. The scholarship is valued at $1,000.

Dawson PPD sponsors the scholarship to encourage people to pursue utility line training. Anyone living in the Dawson PPD area and planning to attend an accredited utility line school may apply.

Dawson PPD serves villages, farms, homes and businesses in rural Dawson, Buffalo counties as well as portions of Lincoln and Gosper Counties. The district employs 47 linemen in their workforce of 82.
